Wherever you're studying in the world, BARBRI gives you the best, most proven legal examination prep available.

New York

Eligibility for the New York State bar exam is administered by the New York State Board of Law Examiners and for foreign-trained lawyers and law graduates, the general requirement is that you hold a three-year, full-time LLB from a university in a common law jurisdiction. The curriculum needs to be on campus and amount to a minimum of 166 European Credit Transfer System credits.

California

If you are a qualified lawyer in your home jurisdiction, you can sit for the California Bar Exam. You still have some other requirements to fulfil, but your foreign license is a shortcut in the application process. If you have a law degree but are not licensed, you may qualify to sit for the bar if you complete an LL.M. with at least 20 credits at an ABA or California accredited school.

You will need to apply to the Bar Association so they can verify your documents and accept you to take BAR exam . To process your documents, it can take 4 to 6 months to receive feedback . The two most popular states to apply for the Bar Exam is New York and California .

The BARBRI Extended Bar review programme is either offered as a 6-month full time course (requiring 20-25 hours per week of study time) or as a 10-month part time course (requiring a total of 10-15 hours of study time per week). The Extended Bar Exam is completed twice throughout the year for both courses. The fee for this home study course is $5,995 with an upfront payment of $295 and a flexible payment plan.
